California May Decide the Presidency.

NEW VOTES BETWEEN HUGHES AND WILSON; PROHIBITION SWAMPED.

Returns Indicate that the Fate of the Entire National Election may hinge on the Ballots of Southern California's Country Electors—Vineyards Saved by San Francisco's Heavy Negative Majority.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WILSON was leading Hughes in California by 4410 votes at a late hour last night. Both party leaders claim the precincts still to be counted bring them victory. There are still 5700 precincts to be counted in the State; something like 100 of these are in Southern California, where Hughes is a heavy favorite.

Midnight last night most of the election officials in the outlying districts had locked up their booths and gone to bed. There will be no further tabulation until today.

Latest figures supplied by the Associated Press gave Hughes 425,458 in California and Wilson 429,

Times figures from the eight new counties show that the difference of the Tehachapi gave Wilson 157,429 and Wilson 157,296; and words a plurality of 30,324 in the San Joaquin counties.

The question is, does a majority must be piled on Southern California to overturn the Wilson lead in the north, which is estimated at from 20,000 to 25,000?

Latest figures are followed by deducting by following what it would seem that Hughes won in California by a plurality of 5580 votes. This is, (Continued on Fourth Page.)

GAINS CONGRESSMEN.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Virtually complete returns from many districts and indicatory returns from others tonight placed the Illinois delegation in the lower house of Congress at twenty-one Republicans, including the two Congressmen at large, and the Democrats. This is a gain of four for the Republicans. In most instances incumbents Congressmen were re-elected.

More Than Half of the States of the Union Have Been Voted Into the Dry Column

A LASKA IS ALSO ADDED TO PROHIBITION LIST.

Anti-Saloon League Official Tells of Victory in Colorado.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 8.—More than half of the forty-eight States of the Union have been put into the dry column. Those which were added to the list by the election Tuesday, making the total of "dry," States twenty-five, are Michigan, Nebraska, South Dakota, Montana, Utah and Florida. The Territory of Alaska has also been added to the dry possessions of the United States.

The States which voted on the liquor question in which the dry forces seem to have been defeated, although their returns are not all in, are California and Minnesota.

F. Scott McBride, superintendent of the Illinois State Anti-Saloon League, thus stated the situation: "A number of victories were gained for dry legislation, the defeat of propositions put forward being intended to act as checks on the dry movement. In Colorado an attempt was made to secure an amendment favoring the dry cause under certain restrictions, and in South Dakota and Arkansas the wet championed local option as against State-wide prohibition. In each instance the plan of the wet was made by Supt. McBride."

FORECAST OF PLANS.

"The State Senate will be dry by large majority," he said. "Out of the 100 Senators there will be not less than 80 who are dry, and there may be three or four more. Our chances are good for a majority, although we are not yet certain of it. We elected Hicks of Rockford, one of the representatives who ran. Our program for the year includes State-wide statutory prohibition secured by means of a general, county option, residence district bills and law enforcement."

ALASKA GOES DRY BY LARGE MAJORITY.

SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—Prohibition has carried in Alaska by a large majority.

plete unofficial figures were not ex- pected to appreciably change the totals.

With forty precincts missing Gov. John Kendrick, Democrat, led Senator Charles Don Clark in the Senatorial race by 2565 votes.

DEMOCRATS TO DEMAND NEW HAMPSHIRE RECOUNT

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CONCORD (N. H.) Nov. 8.—A re-count of the vote for Presidential electors in New Hampshire will be demanded by the Democratic State Committee, according to information received tonight. It was learned that the committee had been directed by the national committee to call for a recount at once and to obtain the best available counsel. The national committee is said to have guaranteed expenses of the recount aside from those which regularly would fall on the State. As far as known no charge of fraud has been made.

Complete returns announced by Secretary of State Bean tonight give Hughes a plurality of 161, the smallest plurality ever returned in a Hoosier.

HUGHES LEADS INDIANA BY OVER EIGHT THOUSAND

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Nov. 8.—Although Hughes was leading by more than 8000, with only 232 of the 2143 precincts in the State unaccounted for, the Democratic State headquarters tonight refused to concede victory to the Republican candidates in the State. The Republican candidates for Governor and United States Senator, with a small number of precincts reported, showed larger pluralities than did the Presidential candidate.

According to unofficial returns, Hughes has been in the lead in Indiana ever since the tabulation of 8000 tonight.

Congressional returns tonight indicated that the Republicans probably have eight representatives in the lower house and the Democrats three, with the contest undecided in the First and Eleventh districts.

cincts out of 3142 in Indiana, received up to 10:30 o'clock tonight.

Otto Wittenberg, with ninety-seven districts.

With 131 districts missing Joseph S. Frerlinghuisen, Republican can-

Democratic Chairman McCormick said the returns from the States where the count was finished were more than 99 per cent.

He added that his advice to that West Virginia had gone to October 15, 1916.

"I have not changed my estimate," declared Vance McCormick, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, in a statement made yesterday. "Returns are coming in slowly, but I can reasonably change my estimate that Wilson will have 225 votes in the Electoral College. We have come from New Hampshire and West Virginia, Oregon very close, but Wilson has a good chance of carrying it."

Mr. McCormick said he had no objection to the statement which was still uncertain. Chairman McCormick had been in touch with all the State and national chairmen in doubtful States and had been able to assure them to safeguard the ballot boxes and ballots.

The visit of Atty. Gen. Gregory Dern to the city today had no connection with this phase of the national committee's activities.

TURN IN NEW MEXICO.

WASHINGTON, BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 8.—In this case there should be a serious controversy over the election of a President. The Constitution of the United States provides that the Presidential election shall be held in their respective States and voted by the President and Vice-President. [By A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Oliver W. Bourke, Albert C. Frost and Bert D. Wing were placed on trial today before Judge Geiger in the United States District Court charged with conspiracy to bribe a Federal juror three years ago. The charges grew out of the so-called $10,000,000 Alaska land fraud case tried by Judge K. M. McDonald in March, 1913. Bourke was the juror alleged to have been bribed.

Frost, one of a half-dozen defendants at the trial, was on trial today for his part in attempting to defraud the government out of land in Alaska. Wing was said to have been one of those in the conspiracy.

A. T. Fitzgerald, who formerly was a defendant, was the chief witness for the government today.

COUNTY VOTE; WET AND DRY.
About Twenty Thousand Probable Majority for Amendments.

Owing to the acuteness of the Presidential contest in California, little effort was made yesterday to secure the results on any of the amendments, with the exception of the Prohibition measure.

Latest returns, however, indicate that the drys carried the county by about 20,000 majority on Amendment No. 2, the vote on No. 1 being practically the same.

Amendment No. 5, known as the single tax amendment, was beaten three to one. No. 3, the good roads amendment was given a substantial majority, and it is believed No. 6, preventing State officers holding more than one job, was carried.

Los Angeles county refused to recognize Progressives as Republicans in the State Senatorial and Assembly contests, three regular Republicans being elected to the upper house and nine regulars being elected to the Assembly.

Latest totals from the Sixty-third Assembly District indicate that Alfred L. Bartlett, who has bitterly fought Hiram Johnson and his machine for several years, defeated the Progressive candidate by nearly 9000 majority.

In the Sixty-sixth District there is some question as to whether Thomas White, Democrat, defeated T. L. Ambrose, Progressive. The latest figures indicated that White won.

There is some doubt as to the result in the Seventy-fifth District. Edwin L. Baker, Republican, was in the lead late last night and it is believed he will maintain it. His opponent is Jimmie McKnight.

The action on the amendment announced yesterday that Cogswell had won in the Thirty-third Senatorial District. To the contrary, J. A. Rominger, Republican, won by a large majority.

SATISFIED.
MAYOR REFUSES JOB.

Prefers Man's Positions as Head of Los Angeles—Although a State Railroad Commissioner is Better Paid He will Stick with City.

Frederic T. Woodman prefers to be Mayor of Los Angeles to State Railroad Commissioner.

"I am not going to jump this job," he repeated yesterday when the rumor was revived that he was to be offered the appointment on the State board to succeed Commissioner Edgeron, whose term expires in January.

A week or ten days ago, when the Mayor was approached to know if he would be willing to take the State Railroad commission, he had said his job as Mayor and intended to stay by it. The offer of appointment as State Railroad Commissioner was never officially made to the Mayor but he will give it to the board, by persons close to Gov. John Johnson, if he could have it if he wanted it.

There is a difference of $1500 a year between the salaries. The Mayor of Los Angeles receives $4500 a year; a State Railroad Commissioner is paid $6000 per annum.

WANTS DAMAGES BY THE POUND.
Woman Who Lost Weight as Result of Fumigation Seeks Recompense.

If a woman who weighed 214 pounds lost four pounds by being poisoned by fumigation fumes is she entitled to damages at the rate of $504 a pound?

While this is not exactly the question which Judge Tait is called upon to solve in a suit brought by Mrs. Julia McGreevy against Flora Schnell, Ray and Jessie Clark of the Delmar apartments in Maple street, the facts are that Mrs. McGreevy says she became sick as the result of her apartment being fumigated in her absence, and asks $2018 damages.

Mrs. McGreevy says she was not informed about the fumigation and the gases poisoned her. The case is still on trial.

EXPERTS REPORT ON FIVE POWER PLANS FOR CITY.

Best Calls for Eleven-Million-Dollar Payment; Ten-year Contract.

THE committee of outside experts employed by the city to report on the various propositions looking toward the purchase by the city of the distributing systems of the three power companies yesterday made an elaborate report to the city committee. The first plan is the city's original one, which it will enter into with the companies at .85 cents per kilowatt hour for five and one-half years. ## ARREST TWO ON CHARGE OF DEFRAUDING A BANK.

Candidates Elected.

anxious to congratulate him upon his immediate success.

UNITED STATES SENATOR.

THROUGH information given him by P. W. Mohan, Los Angeles manager of the William J. Burns International Detective Agency, Sheriff W. H. Rieks of Stockton yesterday arrested John P. Parker and his wife, Mrs. Ethel Parker, a former Los Angeles girl, in Poplar Bluff. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are wanted in Stockton on charges of grand larceny and embezzlement, the couple being accused of having defrauded the San Joaquin Valley National Bank out $800 by means of a worthless check.

When Sheriff Rieks started his hunt for the wanted man and his wife he immediately asked the aid of the Burns agency, which is the agent for the American Bankers' Association. Because Mrs. Parker was formerly a Los Angeles girl, Mr. Mohan was able to obtain information that led to their arrest.

Relatives of Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Almina, reside at 1160 Alpine Street, this city. Although neither Mrs. nor Mr. Almina know as yet that Mrs. Parker is arrested, they declared yesterday that she is innocent. They further stated that Parker married the girl a month ago and that she had been a resident of Los Angeles a year ago while he was visiting Los Angeles. Both Mr. and Mrs. Parker will be taken to Stockton for trial.

Over the Divide.

FRONTIERSMAN IS SUMMONED BEYOND.

EARLY-DAY PEACE OFFICER IS BURIED AT BISHOP.

End of Long Illness Comes for Man Who Arrested Original of Slayer in "Ramona"—His Life One of Picturesque Adventure in Wild West.

When the notorious Sam Temple, the original of Jim Farrar in the story, slew the husband of the heroine in Helen Hunt Jackson's "Ramona," he was arrested by Edward Wyllie Fairchild, then a deputy sheriff in the Cabulla country. That was thirty-nine years ago this month. A few days ago the remains of Mr. Fairchild, a strong figure in law and law-abiding in the West, were laid to rest at Bishop, where he had lived the past fifteen years. Long illness had necessitated retirement. He was 70 years old when he died, widely known this side of the Mississippi as a frontiersman and railroad builder, whose instincts over led him where there was work to be done. Sometimes it was rough work, too, in the fight line.

Mr. Fairchild was born in Marion, Livingston county, Michigan, and early displayed an adventurous spirit. He moved into the West where it was wildest and became one of the youngest riders of the famous pony express. In this horse service he made good, and often was speeded with his mail bag handily. A cool, quiet sturdy man, he enjoyed keenly the thrills and excitement of encounter with robbers, and his indomitable nerve and keen eyes made him a生力军 to brief before his quick gun. Express riding proved too small a field, however, and he returned to contracting. Then the unique adventure of a plains rider from the sea-side building a considerable stretch of the Union Pacific across the prairie was witnessed. And other railroad construction followed.

Coming to California, Mr. Fairchild, some of whose history had preceded him, was persuaded to become a peace officer and served as a deputy sheriff both in San Joaquin and Fresno counties and lived for a number of years in Riverside. He arrested Temple near San Jacinto after the latter had brutal shot to death Juan Diaz, a man who figured as Ramon's Alessandro in the pathetic California novel. The killing is one of the tragic facts touching the delightful life of the beautifully-imaginative writer. Juan in his mild dementia had taken Temple's horse and ridden it home. Temple was then shot from his horse and died. Juan's wife, a baby in her arms, was looking on. Because Temple was white and Juan only a poor Indian, the former did not even tried to save the woman's life, but took him loose on his own testimony. The entire affair was made the special feature of a report by Mrs. Jackson to the Department of the Interior.

Mrs. Jackson in her account of the disgraceful case wrote that "The murderer went to the nearest justice of the peace and got himself arraigned, while he had no defense, killed an Indian." It is said, however, that there are records still in existence proving that Deputy Sheriff Fairchild was present when the trial was held at the Maternity Cottage, Utah, and that he had no defense, killed an Indian."

Mr. Fairchild seldom discussed this or any other of the many unusual episodes in his career, but the statements he made were obtained from him by friends who vouch for them.

Mr. Fairchild was a typical westerner, reserved, dignified, kind-hearted, and pleased to let the other do the talking. He leaves one son, Bert Fairchild.

Charity.

BAZAAR FOR POOR MOTHERS' CAUSE.

FUND IS TO BE RAISED FOR MATERNITY COTTAGE.

Musicians and Club and Society Women will Contribute to the Lights of Two-day Affair at the Alexandria—Programme of Merit is Arranged.

Musicians will give of their talent and club and society women of their time and charm at a bazaar to be held next Thursday and Friday at the Alexandria for the benefit of the Maternity Cottage, Utah and First Streets. The board of managers of the cottage has announced that enlargement of the quarters is now a vital need and funds must be raised at once if the standard of service afforded for poor mothers is to be maintained at the present degree of excellence.

A meritocratic programme is being arranged. It will include songs by Roland Paul, Constance Balfour, Jack Petherick, the Orpheans Four, and Harry Williams of Pasadena, and violin numbers by Miss Marie Buchanan.

Mr. John D. Fredericks is to preside at the famous work-table, and she will be assisted by Mrs. Henry J. Martin, Frederick B. West, Robert D. Hughes and Martha Taggart. Friday, cards will be played at the Alexandria to help swell the building fund.

A MATURE WIRELESS CAN REACH JAPAN.

NEW APPARATUS INCREASES RECEIVING RANGE.

Possible to Distinguish the Nippon Coast Station Messages at Night—Angeleno Graduate Now in Service at European Fronts and Elsewhere.

Closer wireless communication than has ever been possible before has been established between Los Angeles and the Japanese coast at the Y. M. C. A. wireless school through the installation of a new Audionoscillator and amplifier. The new apparatus which intensifies the wave length of wireless messages practically doubles the present receiving range of the wireless set.

At night it is now possible to distinguish messages sent from the Japanese coast station as well as from the Pacific Coast in Hawaii, in Panama and along the Atlantic Coast. The Y. M. C. A. school can reach such points as Arlington, Va., Seattle, La. and Monterrey, N. W. Mexico and other points in the East and South where wireless machines are transmitting or receiving messages.

Two Los Angeles boys, R. E. Bennett, on Jack Rhoads, and Archie Warnock of Hanford, Cal., all graduates of the Y. M. C. A. school of radiotelegraphy, are at present seeing active service before their wireless instruments in the far zone of Europe.

Mr. Warnock, wireless telegrapher aboard the S. S. Kanzan, caught the first messages of distress recently by a German submarine.

For the afternoon will be furnished for the Friday Morning Choral Club under the direction of Mrs. C. Stevens and Mr. C. Oelvie. Another part of the afternoon will be given over to a dancing exhibition by the children of the recreation center at Hollywood and St. John, under the direction of Miss Bryan.

Life's Gentler Side—Society, Music, Song and the Dance—Los Angeles Theaters

SOCIETY.

EARLY 400 guests paid homage to the season's first debutante last night at the California when Mr. and Mrs. James Drake and Mrs. Mary Williams Longstreet entertained at their home, while privilege it was during the coming-out tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mason are giving Miss MacGowan a dancing party the evening of November 21 at their home, 1000 Wilshire. Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Marshall will extend the popular bud a dancant. Others have affairs in the embryonic stage, the dates soon to be announced.

Antecapital.

Complimenting Miss Kathryn Hodges of West Washington street and her fiance, Walter D. Rorick, who are to be married the 15th inst., Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sampson of Hollywood, last evening gave a hundred of stately yellow chrysanthemums against the initials of "K. H." and garlanded the room by way of mural decoration here and there were held great urns of the new blossoms.

Decorations, accustomed as they are to the lush use of flowers, by the decorators in the room dominating both the dining and salon, were in full flower.

Miss Hodges' parents received a special invitation to the affair.

Miss Louise G. Burke and her brother, Carlton, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Walter Leeds and Walter Van Pelt. Mr. and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake dined at home.

Local News.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis, and in which Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Law Barker, Meers, Charlier and Mr. and Mrs. William May Garfield, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Overton and Mrs. Henry Carleton Lee dined at a dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Harry Coburn Turner and Mrs. William S. Hooker.

Margaret Griffith furnished inspiration for the dinner afternoons, and Mr. and Mrs. Avery McCarthy, whose number Capt. and Mrs. William Huntington Miner, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Brockenbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Gilvin Echternach and Miss Isabelle L. Bearce's Orchestra.

At a Dance.

Mrs. B. Hoffman of the Westcourt apartments, No. 1041 South Western avenue, entertained with an enjoyable dance Friday evening, November 3. This is the first of a series of dances to be given this winter.

To Assist.

Judge J. K. Foster, at whose home, No. 200 Wilshire, a benefit musical performance is being given this evening, will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Sumner Kent, Mrs. William S. Hooker, Mrs. Alice Sherman, Mrs. N. D. Dawson, Mrs. Bob Wright, Mrs. W. D. Spalding, Mrs. Foster C. Wright, Mrs. E. Gilvin Echternach and Miss Isabelle L. Bearce's Orchestra.

A pajama Jag.

Positively intoxicating, regardless of "Yes" or "No," the drinkable pajamas are those that just arrived from Fashion's pink chiffon, the trousers accordianed and the blouse embellished with George's pink pincushion. They are made to fit the vicinity of the ankles. Then, to keep the wearer warm, three fur buttons—two upon the blouse and one never seen before—such garments to be worn you are. Well, just when smoking in one's boudoir, what under them? Oh, just another. I'd be sure. Well, may be a very fine-looking silk combination; but really when one talks of chiffon pajamas, one need not go into the entire wardrobe, need one? Sufficient unto the day that there are these wonderful pajamas in that collection, but I will not deal out too many at once. I'll break them to you gradually.

Lovely and Loving.

One of the most beautiful and also most interesting exhibitions ever shown—just off Broadway—about seven steps off—is that collection of trophy cups. There are over forty, for every possible sports triumph from the winning of a hand ball game, or series, to the whirlwind finish of a motor race, from a golf round to a tennis match, from a polo game to tennis to a season's championship. The sports good house which has just put in this line of trophy cups is one which fully understands such events if any kind of sports event has been forgotten by them in this collection, they will forthwith order to order. I tried to decide which cup I would like to win, regardless of my own abilities or talents in sports. For I thought it would be that stack of ten pins—that are so pretty and silvery; but my eye caught the lovely Greek urn-shaped golden cup and when I found that it was the trophy for the year I wanted, I decided that would be mine for championship in some sport as yet uninvited.

Cold for Cupid.

Norma Talmadge, the motion-picture star, was making last night at the Hippodrome, the most popular picture, the latest fashion. She did the star consider her picture work, however, that she and the bridegroom returned the same day to New York. Miss Talmadge is a real beauty, and the pictures Schenck reporting at his office in the Loew suite. They will take their honeymoon after the popular star finishes her present picture.

Can Film, Too.

Little Doris Baker, who is making a hit in the role of the little boy in "Alias Jimmy Valentine," is a picture of four years old. Her picture, a director of one of the picture companies, viewing the child's work on the stage, engaged her on the spot for a role in a new film, "The Littlest Rebel."

Painless Travel.

One of the most entertaining "easy chair" trips ever taken in this city is promised in motion pictures of China at the Majestic, during a long engagement, beginning Saturday afternoon. The troupe contains intimate glimpses of Chinese life in the interior, far off from the tourist beat.

Beverly Hills.

Not yet, here, but about to make their debut, are those Jersey frocks, the latest Paris craze. They are alluring, too, and when looking at them one again bows to Parisian taste. They are foreign to the girls in the stock-rooms of that popular house, which is never seventh to show the latest modes. There were all-over gowns in the most popular house, and now, one of the most charming modes, including the chemise and the Moyen age. Every little touch which makes for the utmost in elegance, the most faddish in effect, was seen in these once-paste frocks. They will be shown to the public in a few days.

November.

As a birthday gift for the one-hundredth, self-taught, topaz, as this is the gem belonging to November. It is the superstition that this stone brings to its possessor fidelity. The topaz is by the way, very popular just now, since all shades of yellow are so much the vogue in dress.

A Sachet Which Really Does.

One which actually smells perfume, and which continues to do so long after it has been opened. That is a discovery that I have made! I scarcely think you can purchase it in bulk, but you may secure the articles which are permeated with it, and these are well worth buying. I assure you.

Substitute Olives.

What a fear to use mushrooms in their cooking, may substitute ripe olives with good results, as the latter when cooked taste much like the French ingredient. With olives, the traditional "test" is non-needed: "If you live, they were mushrooms."

For Her Gift.

What more appropriate as a gift from one girl to another—indeed

AMONG THE STORES AND AMID THE SHOPPERS.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

Now is the time to buy: The small Christmas gift while the "so-much-each" tables are undepended of their choicest articles. The to-order party bag, before the shop where such things are made most beautifully, is swamped with orders.

The candy receptacle de luxe, to have laid on one side to fill at the last hour with candy as de luxe as the box or bag which will carry it as a gift de luxe to the friend beloved.

things in the street on account of danger from passing motorists."

Edgar accepted the verdict. Riding on a board between two wheels with a funny-looking handbar was not motorizing. He helped his vehicle up the curbstone and proceeded on the sidewalk.

Speaks for Itself.

Joseph Galbraith, the Burbank star, took an afternoon off the other day and went to see "Intolerance" at the Grand Auditorium. With him was Eddie Howard, of Oklahoma, who doesn't appear until late in the bill. Howard not only acts, but he writes, too, even having acted as press agent once upon a time. It was in the midst of some of the Babylon revels, and Howard sighed as he remarked feelingly, "I should like to have press-agented Babylon." Galbraith sighed in sympathy and then remarked, "My boy, Babylon needed no press agent."

Foys Back to Two-day.

Vaudeville is to keep the Foys after all. In fact, they have already returned and are playing their new act, "The Foys in Shoe." When in "Shoe," at the Palace Theater in New York. For a while it looked as if the new Dillingham show at the Century was to have the famous funless little Foys, but the two-a-day magnates got their way and the vaudeville season of 1916-17 will end.

Tips on Fashion.

A bright green is one of the most attractive colors for fur linings.

Fur is now treated like cloth, being cleverly cut, and even quilted.

Occasionally there is a frock whose coat reaches to the ears.

African tea frocks are most delightfully made of Georgette crepe. Brassieres which fasten in front are having a wonderful acceptance.

Huge balls of fur give a wintry touch to small theater hats of gold.

This is the Life, by Heck!

The four old veterans at the Hippodrome, the pack of cards, are now regular Grand Army encampment every night back stage. Many a battle of the old days is being fought over again. The veterans are entertaining and being entertained daily by members of the Soldiers' Home.

Pitcher-to-the-well Note.

Once too often has that clever little pitcher, Eddie Polo, gone to the well. After having worked before, he came to the United States to play in the biggest serials and featuring feats which appear very nearly impossible. Polo at last was been injured. He suffered the injuries while working on a five-reel feature of "Lure," a Drama of the Month, featuring Marie Walcan with Jack Holt and himself. During the filming of some fight scenes under the direction of Jimmie McRae, Polo was hit in the head by a bullet and as a result dislocated one sprained his wrist, put one finger out of joint and was cut and bruised on his legs. He didn't stop work, however, despite the unvoiced inconvenience.

Hippodrome.

A wide variety of entertainment will grace the Hippodrome bill opening Monday afternoon. The feature will be John White's circus, an animal act said to possess marked novelty.

Other acts will be the Four Monks, in a four-pounder comedy, and Eddie Loring, character impersonator; Maurice Downey and company in "An Irish Arden"; Alice Allison, the Boston Banjo Girl; the Flying La Mars, and Abbott and Mills in a singing and talking duo.

Pantages.

A wide innovation in a serial film was introduced to an appreciative public this week at Pantages. The picture of "Lure" is the first to be made with certain social problems, but is very human and appealing. In "Njoo" Los Angeles is having its first opportunity to see a play set in the heart of the city of stars, decorated with the imagination into play rather than the photographic eye and the memory for accurate and infinite detail. No one who has viewed this first offering of the Players' Producing Company will debate the effectiveness of Mr. Geddes's settings.

Garrison.

Richard Bennett, famous both as stage and screen star, who appears at the Hippodrome Sunday, November 11, in a production entitled "Philip Hastings Master," said to be a delightful comedy, exceptionally well staged and acted. It is the first picture play Mr. Bennett has appeared in since "The Mad God."

"The Last Man," with Mary Anderson and William Duncan in the leading roles, is proving a big drawing card this week.

Miller's.

One of the events of the year is the sudden rise to popularity of talented Gladys Brockwell, who has been given an unusually appreciative reception by the film public, who have witnessed her in "A Sins of Her Parent," showing at Miller's Theater. The story has plenty of action, rare comedy situations, many thrills and one of the most exciting scenes of the month.

Herschel Mayall, William Clifford, George Webb and Carl von Schiller are prominent in the large supporting company.

Alhambra.

Ethel Clayton is the hero of the vivid picturization of Roy Norton's world-famous novel, "The Mediator," on open Sunday.

Palace.

Capitol houses are attending visitors every performance at the Palace this week to view Bebe Barricale in her latest picture, entitled "A Corner in Colleens." This production is a comedy-drama of old fashioned, but thrilling, scenes.

Charles Ray does much credit for his clever characterization of the young American who resuscitates the little Irish funmaker from many a previous position.

Fred M. and a flock of Keyes' gnomes—literally "zip the show" by their laughable antics in "A Lover's Right," a comedy extraordinary.

William S. Hart will be the next week's dramatic star at the Palace in "The Patriot," a play that affords him the role he loves so well, that of a "bad man" who finally sees the error of his ways and reforms.

A N INTERVIEW.

A Sam Gompers boasts that he had an "interview" with Mr. Charles Evans Hughes. There was a British politician once who had an "interview" with King Charles II, and who ever afterwards boasted of it. A poet of the time places in the mouth of the subject who was so honored by Charles Stuart the following lines:

"The King, he did me the honor to say—
"You dirty dog, get out of my way!"

RED LIGHTS AND GREEN.

RED was a certain ironical symbolism in the choice of the colored lights to be shed from our mountain tops to proclaim the victory of Hughes and Wilson in the Presidential campaign. A red light on Mt. Wilson meant that Wilson had won, elected to four more years of hesitation. And a green light would flash the information that Hughes had been elected.

In railroad parlance red lights stand for danger; green lights indicate that the line is clear! All safe ahead!

PRaised BE!

If for nothing else, let us be thankful for this: the Socialists have been cleaned out of the Illinois Legislature. And for this: the single tax absurdity has been voted down and out in California and Oregon. And also for this: the women (Lord bless 'em) seem to have uniformly voted with their husbands. And also for their husbands. Can you blame them? Those who entertained fears some years ago that politics and the suffrage were going to divide our families and overburden the divorce courts were needlessly terrified.

EUROPE OWES US TWO BILLION DOLLARS.

When the war broke out the United States was in debt to Europe. Now Great Britain owes us $1,120,000,000; France, $570,000,000; Russia, $50,000,000, and Italy, $25,000,000. $50,000,000 of the British loan and $100,000,000 of the French loan is secured by collaterals; for the other $561,000,000 of the British loan and for $470,000,000 of the French loan the Americans who were hummed into purchasing the unsecured bonds of the allies will have to look to the results of the war, and the ability and willingness to pay of the governments of those countries. It may be noted in this connection that Germany has borrowed only $10,000,000 of us.

ELECTION DAY NOVELTIES.

The returns are still close, but this much is clear: President Wilson's appeal for votes on the score of "Wilson prosperity" gained him nothing. The eastern States, where the leopard-skinned "Wilson prosperity" prevails (in spots), have uniformly voted for Hughes. The line-up seems to be the South and West against the East. One could expect it from the South. The southern and western States that do not share in "Wilson prosperity," except for the Federal contracts for war materials that have been let to southern bidders, appear to have the role now of settling the contest. The votes of California and Minnesota, for instance, may be the determining factors in the next Electoral College.

A STORY WITHOUT A MORAL.

At the Broadway Department Store Monday morning two irate ladies were engaged in a heated controversy. Very soon they arrived at the abusive stage. Each announced to all and sundry that the other was no lady, and proceeded to offer public evidence thereof. One of them, upon the recommendation of a bystander, started to move away. The other followed her with increased vituperation. Finally she smacked the face and grabbed the hat of the retreater, and only under threat of calling the police, was she persuaded to leave the building, still gesticulating furiously.

The argument was "California Wet or California Dry?" The lady who did the face-smacking and hat grabbing was "dry."

There isn't any moral. We would hate to choose either of them for a mother.

THE SOLDIER VOTE.

The vote of the Federalized guardsmen on the Mexican border may decide the election. Minnesota has over 4000 men on the international line and Minnesota up to a late hour was classified as one of the doubtful States. If not, indeed, the pivotal State. The ballots cast by these men, in advance of the official election day, may settle the issue as between Wilson and Hughes. Their votes, like those of other Federalized guardsmen, were cast in advance so that the official count might be sent on to the respective States to be included in the different State totals. It was known a day in advance of the election, as readers of The Times will recall, how a number of the guardsmen baloted. The information was unofficial, but none the less interesting.

If the Southern States had as many men on the border as the Northern States, or if the numbers were apportioned by population, maybe the chroniclers of the situation would have quite a different story to tell from the one that 4000 Minnesotans in khaki may decide the mighty contest.

It is now reported that William Sidney Porter (O. Henry), wrote many of his stories when he was a convict in the Columbus (O.) penitentiary for embezzlement. It will be recalled that John Bunyan wrote "The Pilgrim's Progress" behind the walls of the Bedford jail.

ECHOES OF THE FIGHT. So far as the Presidency is concerned, it is nobody's fight as yet. The claims of the Democratic shouters that the "election of Wilson is sure" are unmitigated bluff; there is no warrant for such an assumption except in pure effrontery. All the summaries of the electoral votes by fair calculators give Hughes more votes than Wilson, after eliminating the doubtful States. The Times wishes it could state with candor that the election of Hughes is a certainty, but it cannot; it can and does say in all sincerity that Hughes' chances are good—that if he carries California or two other doubtful States, in the final count, he is elected. There is an even chance that the belated returns from Republican strongholds in the South will place California in the Hughes column; The Times will be surprised if such is not the case. There are other ways, however, in which Hughes may pull out ahead.

The reasons for the heavy Wilson vote in California are quite clear and will be fully discussed by The Times when fuller information is at hand.

As for prohibition, it seems to have met a Waterloo. The remonstrance against it in San Francisco and the northern counties was tremendous. For some inexplicable reason, Los Angeles county, the home of tourist hotels, gave a strong vote for No. 2; but, with the returns in from half the precincts in the State, it is apparent that this dangerous amendment was beaten by between fifty and seventy-five thousand majority. No, I got a worse set-back. It is to be hoped that the agitators of such propositions will call off their dogs of war, now that the sentiment of the people of California has been so clearly expressed, and that our harassed and hounded State can enjoy a season of repose.

There is occasion for Republican jubilation over the makeup of the new Congress, which will be controlled by the G.O.P. and stand like a rock against mischievous legislation, no matter what else may happen.

OTHER ELECTION CONTESTS.

When the decision of the people of the United States between Hughes and Wilson hung in the balance yesterday old-time political observers let their minds go back to America's classic quarrel—the Hayes-Tilden contest of 1876—as a result of which Rutherford B. Hayes, Republican, was chosen President by an electoral commission on March 2, 1877, by only one electoral vote over Tilden. This is regarded as the hottest fight of American politics.

Samuel J. Tilden of New York was the Democratic candidate and the campaign engendered so much ill feeling that President Grant had to call on Gen. Sherman to be ready to repress lawlessness in the South. When the returns came in some doubt was cast on those from South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida.

The popular vote showed a majority for Tilden, but the Electoral College was tied. A Democratic House of Representatives demanded an investigation and finally a commission of fifteen was agreed to, consisting of five members from each house, four associate Justices of the Supreme Court and a fifth Justice selected by the four. The count of the ballots was completed March 2 and Hayes was declared victor by one vote majority in the Electoral College—185 to 184.

Hughes took the oath of office privately on March 4, 1877, fearing that an attempt would be made to rush the Presidency for Tilden, but the next day he again took the oath publicly.

A number of Presidential contests in our history were not decided until a few days after the election. The fight of 1884, when James G. Blaine, Republican, made his famous campaign as the "Plumed Knight" against Grover Cleveland, was an instance. Because the returns were incomplete for several days, the country did not know who had been elected. There was a hot fight in Ohio. The early returns favored the Republicans, and on the strength of them they claimed the election of Blaine. But in a few days it was shown that Cleveland had carried New York. In this fight Blaine secured 219 electoral votes and Blaine 182. Cleveland carried New York, Indiana and New Jersey, but Illinois went for Blaine. The popular vote was close—4,911,017 for Cleveland, as against 4,848,334 for Blaine.

Another instance of a close popular vote was the election of 1888, in which Harrison secured 5,444,337 popular votes, as against 5,540,050 for Cleveland, although Harrison won 23 in the Electoral College over 163 for Cleveland. The contest of 1880 also was close as to popular vote, Garfield winning 4,449,085 votes and Hancock, 4,442,035.

OUR LUMBER AND THE SHIPS TO CARRY IT.

One of the factors that will make for an increase in the value of lots in Los Angeles improved with bungalows is an advance in the price of lumber. "Europe will need a billion dollars worth of lumber the first year after the war," said W. E. Pratt, chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. There will be at the close of 1916 an estimated deficit in the normal European lumber supplies of $400,000,000, outside of the additional needs for lumber due to the actual destruction of the war. France, Belgium and Poland will need lumber to replace ruined buildings, railroads, bridges, etc.

It has been estimated in Europe that at least $400,000,000 worth of lumber will be needed for this purpose. Add the $400,000,000 deficit to the normal demand and a total of $800,000,000 worth of lumber over and above the usual demand of $580,000,000 will have to be supplied to Europe by the lumber-producing countries.

The bulk of this lumber must be supplied in part from the southern States and in part from Washington and Oregon. Most of the best pine in Sweden has been cut. Norway has not the facilities for getting out lumber and Russia will not be exporting pine for many years.

The advance in the price of lumber which these conditions will entail will not be checked on this Coast for lack of vessels to transport the Puget Sound lumber to the Atlantic Coast and Europe. It is only to be regretted that many of these vessels, even when American-built and American owned will not—unless Congress shall amend the seaman's law—be American registered or carry the American flag.

Since the number of American ships on the Pacific Ocean was reduced by the sea-man's law, the ship-purchasing law, and the repeal of the Panama Canal tolls exemption law, there has been a quiet, but rapid increase of the number and tonnage of foreign ships engaged in the trade between this Coast and the Orient. The Osaka Shosen Kaisha which is now operating between Puget Sound and Japanese ports is contemplating the establishment of a line between San Francisco and Sydney and Melbourne. The Oceanic Company—the American-owned Australian line—cannot send its ships through to Melbourne on account of its mail contracts which compel it to terminate its sailings at Sydney.

The popular vote showed a majority for Tilden, but the Electoral College was tied.

The people who are complaining about the impoverished quality of contemporary fiction, and literature in general, simply do not know of what they are talking. Not all of the current fiction is good—and never was it at any time since man began to write.

The trouble with those critics of obtrusively intellectual pretensions is that they do not read the magazines and newspapers understandingly. There has never been a time when so many fine short stories and so many good novels were being written. Literary technique and nuances of expression and various forms of literary grace have been developed to a point that cannot be appreciated by anyone not familiar with the contents of twenty and thirty years ago. There is but one novelist among those considered as the foremost in England or America who is not putting his stories through the magazines and newspapers.

WANTS A MEDAL.

Robert E. Poole wants what he shot for a $100 diamond studded medal. He filed suit last week in Justice Hinshaw's court to obtain this medal, or its equivalent, and damages of $50, alleging he won a trap shoot for which the medal was offered by Fred H. Teeple of the Los Angeles Gun Club. After winning the trap, Poole was told that the gun he had given him was an amateur and the medal was refused him. He is a member of the Vernon Gun Club, which competed against the local aggregation of shooters.

MIKE GIBBONS SAYS HE WILL SURPRISE DILLON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

S. PAUL (Minn.) Nov. 8.—What amount of cleverness Dillon is probably the hardest job

Mike Gibbons has ever tackled since the days he quit his job in a shop a few years ago at $14 per week less before the phantom Friday night.

After a careful study of the records of both men, it looks as if Jack Dillon, who boasts of more knockouts than any present-day battler, should come on top. This prediction is made with all due respect for the cleverness of the Minnesota star.

A lot of ring followers will say that Gibbons should win on speed, but the record of Dillon shows that he has got the upper hand in the fight. Gibbons has been catching far sinisters in the ring and backing them up against the ropes, so that the only way he can escape is to fight them out of the ring. Dillon has been doing the same, but Gibbons is the only fighter who can give him the licking of my life if I would only stand up and fight instead of galloping away from him. Well, he is about to receive the jolt of his career.

Gibbons starred with the Blue Jays, whacking the ball over the fence and into the stands. The other goals for this team were made by Miller and Burke. Harry Weiss made two goals for the White Wings and in his eagerness to get the ball across the goal line, shot the last time he knocked one of the goal posts over with his mount. The other scores for this side were made by Cook and Boucher.

Both major contests are developing as the season advances with the indication of some splendid polo ahead. The players are adding to their strings of horses. L. R. Macy, who has been leading the pack wide for some good mounts, has a promising horse coming in from Arcadia today which will be given a tryout on the polo field at an early date.

Cook and Burke's new horse, General, who he picked up last summer while he was buying horses for the United States Army, has taken to polo just like a duck takes to water. The general is well reined and absolutely fearless.

Tod Ford, one of the promising new players, who was called to Youngstown, Pa., on account of his fine record, is expected to be back for the game next Saturday. During the absence of Ford, Rufus R. Spalding returned from the East and took his saddle. One day he had been shot in the shoulder, and in less than one hour he was on the field at the Midwick in riding habit, ready to play. Macy had telephoned him en route that he would be unable to complete his team. The message was received at Winslow.

It was said today by one close to the National Commission that this innovation was the big topic of conversation here recently, when Gerry Herrmann and Ban Johnson held their mysterious conference.

There would be no objection from the owners, for the document places the player under the club's control the year around. The players would be unable to offer a reasonable excuse for signing such a paper with the national commission.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 8.—From reliable sources comes the information that major league ball players will be asked to sign a new form of contract next year. The document runs for twelve months instead of six and binds the athlete for baseball purposes only. The salaries are to be paid on the 1st and 15th of every month, instead of during the playing season only.

If such a contract is adopted the player will not be in need of coin between seasons and the usual mid-winter touch from the club would be missing. This feature is not the real issue; the contract would do away with all barnstorming in the fall and would prevent the players from indulging in old pastimes during the off season. Likewise, the athletes could be forced to report for practice at any time.

Oh, Girls! SPEED WAGONS RAMBLE TODAY.

First Official Practice Starts at Ten o'clock.

Santa Monica Course Ready for Terrible Grind.

Race Drivers Banqueted by Billy Weightman.

Big doings are scheduled for Santa Monica today. Practice will officially start at 10 o'clock this morning and six or seven speedsters are expected to turn out. Earl Cooper will be there in his Stutz and it is probable that a Duesenberg and a Mercer will be on the job.

By tomorrow practically all the cars will be ready for work and on high-class speed and noise is on the slate for the second day of practice.

With Resta and Rickenbacher all ready here this afternoon the quality of the coming Santa Monica classic hits the ceiling. While these three leading drivers in the American Automobile Association championship standing will naturally be the fastest, they will have to keep driving every minute to stay in the front.

The Mercer team of Pullen, Thomas and Ruckstell is a combination that will force the drivers to produce the best they have. These three were the first easterners to arrive in Los Angeles for the Southern California events and with them will be the Peugeot and Duesenberg to the limit.

Road races have never been held here on the road race course, but the class of drivers and cars can be relied on

POLITICS MAIN TOPIC ON THE STOCK MARKET.

Turnover of About 2,100,000 Shares of Which United States Steel Furnished 25 Per Cent. was the Main Feature of New York Exchange—Bonds are Firm with Initial Rise in Shares.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—It is no exaggeration to declare that not in a generation has the stock market been swayed by such important and conflicting conditions as attended today's extraordinary deal.

Politics was the one engrossing topic of discussion, all other considerations and developments swept into the background in the excitement surrounding the outcome of the Presidential election.

The result of that momentous event remained a matter of debate and conjecture at the close of the day, which witnessed a turnover of about 2,100,000 shares of which about 2,100,000 shares of which were United States Steel, which had risen 25 per cent. on the United States bonds unchanged on call.

GIRLS IDENTIFY UNION REPORTS.

Henchmen Detail Success of Dynamite Plots.

Many Who Wrote Letters now Serving Time.

Visiting Witnesses Amazed at Waning Interest.

Three former stenographers of J. J. McNamara, dynamite director for the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, occupied the witness stand in the Caplan trial yesterday, and one of them is to be recalled this morning to complete the identification of a man of letters. The great bulk of their letters are reports of McNamara's henchmen from various parts of the country detailing their success in preventing labor disputes, blowing up bridges, factories, creating wreck and havoc in the industrial world.

A number of the officials who wrote the incriminating documents have since denied that they now serve sentences in the prisons of this and other States. One very prolific writer was H. S. Hookin, a member of the executive board of the union, now completing a six-year prison sentence for his participation in the Leavenworth after having been convicted in the Indianapolis trials.

Miss Jessie Minnick of Indianapolis, one of the most active women on the stand, said she was followed by Miss Louise Meyer, an attractive girl, whose appearance created much favorable comment by those attending the trial. She came from Chicago, while Miss Nora Haley, the last witness, traveled here from Chicago to testify.

The utter lack of interest in the present case was the outstanding feature of the meeting of all the young women who were questioned about their impressions on this visit. Yesterday there were barely half a dozen spectators in the courtroom at any one time.

ALL IN THE FAMILY.

Husband and Wife Face Arson Charges in Different Courts at Some Hours—Both Released on Own Recognition to Care for Children.

While the preliminary hearing of Claude Pearman, accused of arson, was going on before Justice Hanby yesterday, a similar scene with his wife, Mrs. Josee Pearman, was being enacted before Justice Summerfield. Both members of the family are charged with having attempted to alienate themselves from their home after setting fire to it.

In each court, the justice held the individuals to answer to the higher court and then permitted the defendants to go on their own recognizance that they might continue to care for the home of children belonging to them.

SHE SPOKE TOO SOON.

Judge Vacates Divorce Decree Following Woman's Trade.

"Not on your ninty," declared, in effect, Mrs. Lenora E. Hepner, yesterday, addressing Superior Judge Wood. "Do you think I am going to let that child go out on the street and let him work the stuffin' out of R?"

The "him" referred to was her husband, Jacob Q. Hepner, who was charged with desertion and who admitted he could rather ill afford the same amount of money than with his wife. The "it" was their child, who was allowed to go to the father during the school vacation.

The outburst cost Mrs. Hepner the decree, the court had just granted her. The judge, however, set aside and denied the decree, remarking that the demonstration convinced him that Mr. Hepner probably had provocation for leaving home.

IN MURDER CASES.

Judge Sets Early Date for Trial of Aged Colored Man.

The age and feeble condition of old "Bill" Smith, a colored man bearing the weight of many seasons on his shoulders, his Superior Judge McCormick, in a hurried session, arranged for his trial for the 2nd and or February of next year, where it would come under ordinary circumstances.

The man is to stand trial on the charge of having killed Joe Somero, a Mexican, in a quarrel over a Mexican woman, a lifelong friend of the defendant. Deputy Public Defender Aguirre represented Smith, who was afraid he would be condemned to death if he stood trial.

Smith, who was jointly indicted with the two, has not been found since he was released on a preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner in New York some time ago.

Reconstruction of Cahuenga Chapel to be Considered.

Plans to rebuild Cahuenga Chapel, three miles south of Hollywood, are to be presented to Gov. John G. Hart and Gen. Andres Pico, will be considered at a meeting of the California History and Landmarks Club at 2:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon. It was this chapel that Gen. Fremont and Pico, according to tradition, signed the treaty that made California a United States province. In case the chapel is rebuilt, it is planned to make it the headquarters for the California History and Landmarks Club.

WHITE DEPUTY WAITS.

Federal Judge Hears Arguments on Idaho Man's Application for Writ of Habeas Corpus. Alleges False Pretense in Getting Bond.

United States District Judge Tripp heard arguments yesterday on the petition of Charles A. Kreuger for a writ of habeas corpus.

Kreuger is wanted as a fugitive from justice. It is alleged by the authorities that he made false representations to the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Maryland, through which the corporation was induced to furnish him a surety bond for $4,000, on a contract for a building to be erected at Twin Falls, Idaho. Kreuger claimed, it is alleged, that he owned 160 acres of land near Bloomfield, Mont., when as a matter of fact he did not own the land.

Irregularity in the proceedings leading up to the issuance of Gov. Johnson's warrant of extradition on the requisition of the Governor of Idaho are alleged as a part of the defense. V. O. Crowley, deputy sheriff of Twin Falls, has been here for four weeks waiting to take Kreuger back to Idaho.

DEAD WOMAN'S PARENTS SEEK TO OBTAIN CASH.

Man, Who Claims to be Husband, Produces Copy of a Marriage Certificate but Intervenors Allego She Was an Inmate of a Disorderly House.

Aaron and Chune Montag of Australia, father and mother of Sadie Montag, intervened in the suit of Frank Bernard against the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank to declare cash in the amount of $17,000 held by it, to be community property. The suit which came on for trial before Judge Myers yesterday developed the fact that while the plaintiff intended to pay to take the car he intended to transfer to, and then assessed the costs of the case equally against the plaintiff and the defense.

WITHOUT CONSENT.

ON AUTO THEFT CHARGE.

F. J. Boutch was convicted of the minor crime of "taking an automobile without the consent of the owner" by a jury in Superior Judge Crail's courtroom yesterday.

With J. E. Hubert, another youth, Boutch passed the home of W. B. Heitz, No. 227 Green avenue, June 22, and saw a car standing there. The young man stopped the car and the grantees of the present Home Telephone, or King "franchise," wrote the Council yesterday asking it to advertise for sale telephone equipment in Los Angeles.

He submits a proposed ordinance which he says "protects the city of Los Angeles in every respect, offers a solution of the present telephone problem and protects the Pacific Telephone Company in its present investment in it that it has an opportunity of bidding."

Asked to Put in Plot.

Protests Sustained.

The Council yesterday sustained protests against the proposed improvement of New Hampshire avenue, from Wilshire boulevard to Seventh street, and of Inskeep avenue, from Slauson avenue to south of Thirty-eighth place, and the Encino Council yesterday sustained the doings of the city in the same vicinity.

The ordinance was adopted abandoning proceedings for the improvement of Wilton place from Franklin avenue to Hollywood boulevard.

IN AND OUT ABOUT THE COURTS.

SALESMAN SUES. Walter B. Marle, a jewelry salesman of Chicago, filed suit against the Great Northern Pacific Steamship Company yesterday, claiming $258.3 damages for the failure of the company to deliver his sample trunk to him in time for the Christmas trade. The trunk, he alleges, was shipped to Honolulu when he took passage to San Francisco. The steamer, Los Angeles, then went back to San Francisco, and was sent by express to Los Angeles. Meantime, he says, he was compelled to wait in this city sixteen days, paying board and other expenses, the trunk arriving too late to show the sample jewelry to the trade.

Former Chief of Police Shay of St. Paul, Minn., filed suit against the action of the house and its inmates, W. A. Brazeau, an immigration officer, testified that he had talked to Sadie Montag's sister in the house in investigating of undesirable aliens and learned from her that she had married a man named Brown. Attorney James Donovan, who represents Mr. Bernard, closely questioned both officials.

Plants for public Christmas celebrations in the Plaza, city playgrounds and other places already are being made by the Playground Commission, which yesterday asked the Council to appropriate $450 for the purpose.

The commission says it is the intention to have these outdoor celebrations in all the playgrounds and other selected places. It needs the money for Christmas trees, decorations, lighting, drayage, music, moving pictures and other entertainments.

CITY'S CONSENT.

MUST BE OBTAINED.

After the decision of the State Railroad Commission allowing the telephone merger is silent as to the need of obtaining the city's consent. It is the opinion at the City Hall that it is the opinion that the approval will be to be secured.

The street car company, through its manager, is not custom to make transfers and introduced in evidence the ticket which Trulove was supposed to have had in his possession of the transfer. The conductor insisted that he had not received any cash from his customer.

Justice Forbes, after considerable deliberation, decided that the railway company must pay the defendant the money which he intended to take to be community property. The suit which came on for trial before Judge Myers yesterday developed the fact that while the plaintiff intended to pay to take the car he intended to transfer to, and then assessed the costs of the case equally against the plaintiff and the defense.

The Council yesterday sustained protests against the proposed improvement of New Hampshire avenue, from Wilshire boulevard to Seventh street, and of Inskeep avenue, from Slauson avenue to south of Thirty-eighth place, and the Encino Council yesterday protesting against the proposed ordinance. They say they sustain this proposed ordinance because they let not let them assess the members of the club and buy it, as you or I would have to do if we wanted it.

Mr. Corrigan, a property owner, wrote to the Council yesterday protesting against the proposed ordinance. He says why not let them assess the members of the club and buy it, as you or I would have to do if we wanted it.

Mr. Corrigan gave his judgment that the tax on the club would be about $70. "Putting it directly up to you, is it worth it?" he asks the Council.

City Hall Notes.

The Council instructed City Clerk Giese Wilson and George E. Glass of Iowa, "have enough of this world's goods and do not need any help from me." Henry Giese, who died on the 1st inst., bequeathed his estate to the Second Church of the Holiness in Christ for a sum of $1,000.

The sum of $1,500 was authorized to be transferred to the Engineer's department for outfit and sewer purposes.

The City Attorney was instructed to present the bill for the improvement of the Fireman's School property from the Board of Education.

The Council denied a protest against the improvement of Twelfth street, from Palos Verde to Gaffey street, San Pedro.
